

God is for you and not against you! He loves you more than you could ever know. He saved you completely and totally when Jesus died on the cross 2000 years ago. There is nothing you can do to earn this. Salvation is a free gift from God simply because He loves you and wants only the very best for you.

So just say “thank you” and bask in the freedom you now have. You are free to forsake all your wrong-doing and failure and turn to God who loves you so much. You can now enjoy a wonderful relationship with God every day that will go on forever – even after you die. He will never forsake you, annihilate you ... and He certainly will never torment you endlessly (nor anyone else). But He will, eventually, bring you into a loving relationship with Himself, through whatever means required. Yes, God really is that big and successful!

God is your Creator, He made you very much like himself, and He wants to enjoy fellowship with you forever. You are of infinite value to Him. You can trust Him completely because He is completely trustworthy. Seek God and talk to Him ... He will listen. Tell him you love Him and want to know Him. Rest in Him completely, no matter what happens, and enjoy peace, security, and freedom like never before because He will never fail you!
